WE’RE COMING TO YOU!

Otterbein offers guidance counselors a chance to meet with President Kathy Krendl and learn more about the community

The Otterbein University Office of the President and Admission are on the road this Fall hosting Guidance Counselors throughout the state.

Counselors will have the opportunity to meet President Kathy Krendl, named one of Ohio’s most Powerful and Influential Women in 2011, and hear her speak about Otterbein’s Integrative Studies curriculum. They’ll also be able to meet with staff from the Office of Admission and get information on new updates and initiatives. For more information:

Affordability. We believe in providing an exceptional educational experience at a reasonable cost. That’s why we partner with students and their families to help make an Otterbein education both practical and affordable. Working with families on an individual basis, Otterbein does its best to maximize scholarship and financial aid resources, looking at each student’s scholarship potential and each family’s financial need.
