QUALIFICATIONS: A Ph.D. from an AACSB accredited college of business/economics or be within one (1) year of degree completion required. Candidates with professional experience and designations (CPA, etc.) preferred. This is a tenure-track position with commensurate expectations for teaching, scholarship and service. Applications for a visiting position will also be considered. The ideal candidate must possess superior communication, leadership, and organizational skills. Teaching experience in baccalaureate and graduate programs, demonstrated record of scholarship, experience in curriculum development and evaluation, and experience in online and/or blended education preferred.

WHEN: August 2014.

RESPONSIBILITIES: Teaching undergraduate and graduate level accounting classes; providing service to the Department and service in the University’s governance system; and creating new knowledge through appropriate research. Research priorities focus on refereed output. Candidates should have teaching interests in two (2) or more of the following areas: financial accounting, intermediate accounting, taxation, auditing, and government accounting principles. The position requires advising undergraduate students and directing students towards careers in accounting. The successful candidate will teach both graduate and undergraduate classes and research in the area of Accounting, such as Financial Accounting, Intermediate Accounting, Taxation, Auditing, Government Accounting Principles, Special Topics in Accounting, MBA Managerial Accounting, and MBA Graduate Seminars.

DEPARTMENT: The Department of Business, Accounting and Economics is responsible for all business offerings in the undergraduate and MBA programs and is one of the largest departments on campus. The department, with eleven (11) full-time faculty members, seeks to provide a thorough understanding of business and economics concepts that will encourage students to participate in an effective way in today’s global business environment. The department offers degrees in Accounting, Business Administration, Economics, Finance, Human Resources, International Business, Management, and Marketing and a Master’s degree in Business Administration.
OTTERBEIN UNIVERSITY is a private, co-educational, comprehensive liberal arts institution founded in 1847 and affiliated with the United Methodist Church. It is located in Westerville, Ohio, a suburb of Columbus that has been ranked the fifth friendliest town in America by Forbes and Nextdoor.com in 2012 and 15th on Money Magazine’s 2009 list of Best Places to Live. Otterbein enrolls approximately 3,000 students, including full and part-time undergraduates, adult learners, and students enrolled in The Graduate School. Otterbein offers more than 70 majors, as well as individualized fields of study. Master’s degree programs are offered in allied health, business administration, education, educational mathematics and nursing, including courses in its newly-accredited nurse anesthesia program in conjunction with Grant Medical Center. Otterbein’s first doctoral program, doctor of nursing practice (DNP), began classes in spring 2011. Accredited since 1913 by the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools, Otterbein has consistently placed high among peer institutions in U.S. News & World Report’s “Guide to America’s Best Colleges” for over a decade. Otterbein is ranked 17th among 147 schools in its category in the 2014 guide. Otterbein has also been recognized by Washington Monthly as a top school for contributions to the public good and by the President’s Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll for its commitment to community service and service-learning.

WHERE: Otterbein University is located in Westerville, Ohio, a suburb of Columbus. Westerville has a population of approximately 37,000 people and combines the beauty and convenience of a medium-sized community with the cultural, educational, and economic benefits of Columbus, the state capital, a thriving and diverse metropolitan area of 1.4 million people. Central Ohio is the fastest growing area in the state with stability provided by a diversified economy.

APPLICATION: Finalists for the position will be asked to submit official transcripts for all previous academic work. Send letter of interest, curriculum vitae, and three (3) current letters of reference to: Dr. Barbara Schaffner, Dean of the School of Professional Studies and The Graduate School, Otterbein University, 1 South Grove Street, Westerville, OH 43081. Email submissions: academicjobs@otterbein.edu. Review of applications begins immediately and continues until the position is filled. To learn more about the School of Professional Studies, please visit us at www.otterbein.edu/professionalstudies.

Equal Opportunity Employer and Educator