OCATS

The Otterbein Club of Athletic Training Students is designed to provide an environment for social and academic learning. The Mentorship program will assist new students with the uncomfortable task of meeting the upperclassmen, and enable them to feel comfortable asking questions about Otterbein University and our athletic training program. The overall vision is to provide a stimulating learning environment, which in turn will produce athletic trainers of the highest quality.

Although membership in this club is not mandatory it is highly recommended.